

CANADA-SRI LANKA BUSINESS COUNCIL

HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR CANADA IN SRI LANKA SPEAKS AT TORONTO CSLBC LUNCHEON

High Commissioner for Canada in Sri Lanka – H.E. Angela Bogdan

The High Commissioner for Canada in Sri Lanka, H.E. Angela Bogdan made a quick stop in Toronto to address members of the Canada-Sri Lanka Business Council and invited guests. Speaking to a packed house on December 2 at the Holiday Inn, High Commissioner Bogdan explained the many initiatives undertaken by the Canadian High Commission in Sri Lanka.

Canada and Sri Lanka have strong bilateral ties based upon shared participation in the Commonwealth, and development assistance through the Colombo Plan, in addition to the presence of a vibrant community of Canadians of Sri Lankan origin. The High Commission in Sri Lanka also represents Canadian interests in the Maldives.

Sri Lanka's Consul General in Toronto, Mr. Bandula Jayasekara and CSLBC President Louise Roberge also spoke. The audience also heard from Scotiabank about the bank's incentives for Small Business.

December 2, 2008 - The Canada-Sri Lanka Business Council presented High Commissioner Angela Bogdan with a donation towards the United Nations – World Food Programme, another Canadian initiative in Sri Lanka

